

The Art of Talking to Kids

Engaging children in dialogues that build connection, develop emotional intelligence, critically thinking and confidence

The more deeply you can communicate with your children, the more deeply you can connect to them, support them, and guide them. This 2-hour interactive presentation focuses on helping you:

- Create a conversation that your children will be open and receptive to
- Explore your child's feelings, thoughts and perceptions with "Explorative Dialogue"
- Help your children critically think beyond their limited perceptions of certain situations
- Help your children cultivate a deeper emotional understanding of their thoughts, actions and reactions
- Help your children develop and embody a sense of authentic, unconditional self-worth

Michael Vladeck is a nationally recognized expert in teaching conscious parenting, and helping parents raise balanced, grounded and emotionally intelligent children in our current digital culture. He has been a family counselor and coach since 2004, helping parents and their kids on their relationship dynamics, personal transformation and development.

"As a mentor and spiritual teacher, he is inimitable. The time I spent with Michael is marked by a deeper understanding of the person I am, and the person I hope to become—he is a true role model for young adults."

Kelsey McCabe, 18

"Mike is a real deal master at reaching any groups of kids. He saw right through me and made me see how I didn't need to act how I acted. The dude respected me no matter how hard I tried to piss him off. It killed me. He also helped everyone in my group become more in touch with who they really were – he missed no one. The dude is an empowerment machine."

Ricky Artega, 17

"Michael has a unique ability to connect with both parents and young people in ways that I have never experienced before. He "gets it" on so many levels.

Susan LaHoda, Parent, Boulder, CO

"We would recommend his work to anyone who wants to experience more authenticity, connection and peace in relationship with their teenager."

David and Robin Johnson, Parents, Boulder, CO
